

Married Again
Jim Cuddy

Intro:

A, C#7, F#m, B, D, E, A, A7

Verse:

D A
At least we had the sense to know what s done is done
D A
Now I m not saying we never had fun
F#m D
We made love like a speeding train but we d end up back on earth again
E
It oughtta ve been easy when we got together
E
Sign all the papers, and on with forever
E
No real reason to drink a lot
E
Wake up honey, see what we ve got

Chorus 1:

A C#7 F#m B
Oh my I remember this we don t have any wedding bliss
D E A E
Wake up there s some things we gotta set right
A C#7
Sixteen bottles and a wedding trunk
F#m B
Oughtta be a law against marrying drunk
D E A
Honey, we got married again last night

Verse 2:

D A
You always told me we should follow our own minds
D A
But that was you staying out late and me always left behind
F#m
Fussin and fightin about the same old stuff
D
Six months in I d had enough
E
I m waking up here in the blinding heat
E
A ring on my finger in the wedding suite
E
The same old trouble lying next to me
E

A copy of the license and the registry

Chorus 2:

A C#7
Oh my I remember that kiss
F#m B
But where do we go after this
D E A E
Wake up there s some things we gotta set right
A C#7
Sixteen bottles and a wedding trunk
F#m B
Oughtta be a law against marrying drunk
D E A E
Honey, we got married again last night

Solo:

A, C#7, F#m, B, D, E, A, E
A, C#7, F#m, B, D, E, A, A

Verse 3:

D A
There was a time we thought our lives would move as one
D A
Now it s pick up the pieces honey and see how far you can run
F#m
I was circlin around you like a wounded cat
D
The tears and the rage, I won t miss that
E
It oughtta ve been easy when we got together
E
Sign all the papers, then on with forever
E
No real reason to drink a ton
E
Well wake up honey, see what we ve done

Chorus 3:

A C#7
Oh my I remember that kiss
F#m B
Someone get me out of this
D E A E
Wake up there s some things we gotta set right
A C#7
Sixteen bottles and a wedding trunk
F#m B
Oughtta be a law against marrying drunk
D E A E
Honey, we got married again last night

Chorus 4:

A C#7

No tuxedos, no wedding cakes

F#m B

Oughtta be a law against marrying flakes

D E

Honey, we got married again

D E

Honey, we got married again

D E A

Honey, we got married again last night

End on A7