What Is So Wrong

::Intro::

G - D - C

G - D - C

::Verse#1::

G C
Whatever became of the one that we knew
G D
When did heartless raven ever become you
Em C
Pictures on my mantle theyâ€™re gonna go too

::Chorus::

G
Cause you never even noticed the world gone by
D
Could be gone in the blink of an eye
Am C
What is so wrong, what is so wrong

::Verse#2::

G C
You gotta admit that itâ€™s funny the mess that we made
G D
Maybe we could have fixed it, but there was nothing to save
Em C
I could walk right down there, but Iâ€™m not that brave

::Chorus::

G
No, you never even noticed the world gone by
D
Could be gone in the blink of an eye
Am C
What is so wrong, what is so wrong
G
Something turned me away thatâ€™s true
D
Could be something about me or you
Am C
What is so wrong, what is so wrong

::Interlude/Solo::

G - D - C

G - D - C

G - D - Am - C

G - D - Am - C

::Verse#3::

There's a place on the corner where we used to go
G C

D
You could drink with the poets and then sleep through the show

Em C
Everybody's gone now so you can never go home

::Chorus::

G
No, you never even noticed the world gone by

D
Could be gone in the blink of an eye

Am C
What is so wrong, what is so wrong

G
Something turned me away that's true

D
Could be something about me or you

Am C
What is so wrong, what is so wrong

::Chorus-Outro::

G
You never even noticed the world

D
Never noticed the world

Am C
What is so wrong, what is so wrong

G
Could be something about me

D
Could be something about you

Am C
What is so wrong, what is so wrong

::Instrumental Outro::
