Jimmie Allen

Watching him live he plays different than most tabs given, he plays capo on 4th and I m not sure on the name of the chord names (cause there a little different from basic chords) but I ll give the fret positions for the chords (string6-->1) all relative to the capo

Am7? (002010) I pluck down 5th, 4th, 3rd, then strum down 4,3,2,1 strings for intro and Verse and just strum the chorus or to make it easier strum all (looks like he does)

G7? (320010) one strum down on into and verse then hit 2nd string 0hlp0

F (033210) with a hit on 3rd string 2nd fret with the 1st strum down

C (032010) with a hit on 4th string 2nd fret with the 1st strum down
