Funny how things change when life says jump
You re not the only one

I ve been waiting for the tears to start to flow
I ve been waiting for the heartaches to come
But it don t come at all
I m not reaching out for you in the night
But something deep inside me says it s alright
I ve been waiting for the heartaches to come
But it don t come at all
It don t come at all
No it don t come at all
No it don t come at all
No it don t come at all
