Be good and you will be lonesome

D G A

Be lonesome and you will be free

D G D

Live a lie and you ll live to regret it

D G D A

That s what living is to me

A G A D

That s what living is to me

On a timeless beach in Hispanola
Young girl sips a diet cola
Sheâ€™s worlds apart
Worlds apart

The sprit of the black king still
Reverberates through Haitian hills
He rules the sea and all the fish

What if he had a T.V. dish

Chorus

Be good and you will be lonesome
Be lonesome and you will be free
Live a lie and you ll live to regret it
That s what living is to me
That s what living is to me

Em Bm
In the far off regions the foreign legions

G A
Keep the thieves and the predators at bay

Em Bm
While closer to home, some bad boys still roam

G A
The streets aren t safe, so give it one more day

A G G Em G A
One more day

The stories from my favorite books
Still take on many different looks
And now Iâ€™m gone
Home again

The time has come the Walrus said
And little oysters hide their heads
My Twain of thought is loosely bound
I guess itâ€™s time to Mark this down

Chorus

Be good and you will be lonesome
Be lonesome and you will be free
Live a lie and you ll live to regret it
That s what living is to me
That s what living is to me

That s what living is to me
That s what living is to me
