

Gotta Be Somebody's Blues
Jimmy Eat World

Alright... This is my second go-around at a tab. I'm a fan of acoustic guitars and capos, so rather than drop-D tune, this is a great haunting song for an acoustic.

CAPO 1 (All chords relative to capo)

F#

Let the water come

E Bsus2

She's the only one I love

F#

Let the fat man drop

E Bsus2

She's the sweetest honey pot

A E B

Will they see the sky again?

A E F#

Who will sing their blues for them?

Let the factories rust
She's the only thing I trust
Let the virus spread
She's the silk lining my bed

Will they breathe our air again?
And who will sing their blues for them?

When you're feeling moved
You can have your conscience all you want
You can't say I do nothing
I put it off

Where are you going to go if they come for you?
Will there be someone left to sing your blues?

Where you gonna run when they come for you?
Will there be someone left to sing your blues?
