Easy easy song...

Intro:
Strum a clean A over and over...

Verse One:
(still on B)
```
          E
```
When you re on, I swear you re on.
```
                        B
```
You rip my heart right out.
You rip my heart right out.
```
```
I think the whole room can hear me clear my throat.
```
```
You rip my heart right out.
You rip my heart right out.

Chorus:
```
      A             B    E                    C#
```
If you still care at all, don t go, tell me now.
```
      A             B          E
If you love me at all, don t call.

Verse Two:
(still on E)
Then out of nowhere, put me right back there.
```
```
You rip my heart out, you rip my heart right out.
```
And we know what happens when we get to your house.
```
You rip my heart out, you ll rip my heart right out.

Chorus:

      A             B    E                    C#
```
If you still care at all, don t go, tell me now.
```
      A             B    E                    C#
```
If you love me at all, please don t, tell me now.
```
      A             B    E                    C#
```

If you still care at all, don t go, tell me now.
        A            B            E
If you love me at all, don t call.

Bridge:
A... F#m... E... A... X2

(still on A)
   F#m                          A
I throw away everything I ve written you.
    F#m                          A                      F#m
Oh anything just keep my mind from thinking how I ve had you once.
        A
Oh, I can t forget that.
F#m                          A
Sometimes I wish I could lose you again.

Verse Three:
                    E
You re winning me over with everything you say.
                    B
You rip my heart right out.
You rip my heart right out.
              E
When I let you closer, I only want you closer.
                    B
You rip my heart right out.
You rip my heart right out.

Chorus:

        A            B    E                    C#
If you still care at all, don t go, tell me now.
        A            B    E                      C#
If you love me at all, please don t, tell me now.
        A            B    E                      C#
If you still care at all, don t go, tell me now.
        A            B          E          C#
If you love me at all, don t call.

(repeat as desired...  end on D or fade out if you can...)

Declare Chords:

Drop E...

     DADGBe
F#m:  222xxx
D:   XX023X for verse and 000XXX for chorus and bridge
A:   X02220 for verse and 777XXX or X022XX for chorus
A:   555XXX or (for B fuller sound) 55003X

C#:   999XXX or X244XX
(note, this key actually calls for a Bm, but if you play a full
 B-minor chord it sounds pretty bad in this song)

Any suggestions or corrections can be emailed to me. Hey kiddos, if you like the tab, drop me a line also, it d be nice to know that people are actually using them....
