

The Walk

Jimmy McCracklin

The Walk: Jimmy McCracklin.

#5 on R&B, #7 BB Hot 100 on CHES

Records in 1958.

INTRO: F# B F# C# F#

#1.

F#

Well, I know you heard of Suzy-Q..and I know you heard of The Chicken, too.

B

I know you heard of The Cha-Cha-Choo..cause

F#

The Walk is a dance that you can do.

CHORUS:

F#

B

You just Walk, you just Walk..oh, you Walk, yes,

F#

you Walk.

C#

F#

Yeah, you Walk, yes, you Walk.

#2.

F#

Well, I know you heard of the Texas Hop..

I know you heard of the old Fox Trot.

B

But when you do The Walk, you re right in style..

F#

you just shake your hips and close your eyes.

CHORUS:

F#

B

And then you Walk, yeah, you Walk..and you Walk, oh,

F#

you Walk.

C#

F#

Oh, you Walk, yes, you Walk..(Do the Walk, boys!)

(INTERLUDE:SAX:) F# B F#

#3.

F#

Well, I know you heard of the old Mambo..and I know you heard of the old Congo.

B

But when you do The Walk you start in close..

F#

and don't step on your partner's toes.

CHORUS:

F#

B

You just Walk, yeah, you Walk..oh, you Walk, yes,

F#

you Walk.

C#

F#

Oh, you Walk, that's the Walk..

#4.

F#

Now, if you don't know what it's all about..

come to me and I'll show you how.

B

F#

We'll do it fast, we'll do it slow..then you'll know the Walk everywhere you go.

OUTRO:

F#

B

You can Walk, and you Walk, now you Walk..

F#

C#

you gonna Walk, you gotta Walk..

F#

that's The Walk..that's The Walk..that's The Walk..(Fade.)

A fifties smash from Kraziekhat.