Cloudman

Jimmy Webb

Cloudman

F Bb F

How much do I love you?

Bb6 F

Just as far as I can reach you now

Bb E

But the floor feels cold this morning

Bbmaj7 Gm

Yes, I feel there s nothing left to teach you now

C Bb A Dm

Soon, sweet lady, you will walk away from me

G7 Bb

Into your own reality but please

Chorus:

F Gm7

Just remember air, air is everywhere

F

The cloudman always sees you turn

Am7 C Bbmaj7

And waits to paint you pictures on the wind around you

Am7 C Bbmaj7

Please recall the days when love found you

F Gm7

When the tide breeze rustling curtains in the summer evening

 $\mathbf{Bb} \qquad \mathbf{F} \qquad \mathbf{C} \backslash \mathbf{E} \qquad \mathbf{Dm}$

Bears the imprint of some distant twinkling chimes

F Bb

Think about the cloudman sometimes

How much can I show

Just as far as I can see you now

But the rain dissolves the colors

Till it seems the image can hardly be you now

Cos short sighted rain that flows between your eyes

We cannot see our own goodbyes

Chorus
