This is a great song from a great local Boston band named Jim s Big Ego, see www.bigego.com to check them out, they really are HOT stuff.

VERSE 1:

G

I d like to write you a song,

C

G D G

Tell you everything you thought was really right was really right.

G

I d like to write you a song

C

G D G

Tell you everything you thought was really wrong was really wrong.

G

C

G D G

And at the end of all days, when the Big Man calls us all to Heaven,

G

C

G

He ll tell you you were really right, and everybody else was really wrong,

D G

and so what?

CHORUS:

G C

G D G

I know, I know, I m no better than you.

G C

G D G

I know, I know, I m no better than you.

BRIDGE:

G

And it s right against wrong,

C

Left against right,

G

Black against poor,

C

Force against white,

G

And it s here against when,

C

Man against boy,

G

Boy against girl,

C

Girl against toy.

CHORUS

VERSE:

I d like to write you a song

Tell you everything you thought was really right was really right.

I d like to write you a song

Tell you everything you thought was really wrong was really right.

And at the end of all days, when the big man calls us all to Heaven.

He ll tell you you were really right, and everybody else was really right.

Big Whoop.

CHORUS x2
