

Singing To The Waking Sun
Jivadev

Jivadev s myspace: <http://www.myspace.com/jivadevsmusic>

This is my first submission, so there could be a lot of mistakes in it :p. If you guys any comments please leave them in a reply and i ll adjust the chords.

G D Em x2
C D x2

G D Em
we were singing to the waking sun
G D Em
another summer day had begun
C D
we took a chair and sat and watched the sun awake

G D Em
i read the book of the mighty one
G D Em
found his words in all that could be seen
C D
there was magic floating around
G D Em
all the world

G D Em
we were children but we had grown up
G D Em
we did not know what life was all about
C D
we only knew we were totally drunk in love
G D Em

C#m G#m
we were to shy about our love
Bm F#
we did not have to go through
C#m G#m Bm F# G
all these things that would damage the hearts of our souls
Bm G
we didn t have to

G D Em
our eyes watched each others love
G D Em
we were wandering what we had to do

G D Em

because, we couldn't even locked the door

G D Em

so we tried to keep your brother outside

G D Em

do you remember when my uncle stopped by

G D Em

for that Volvo that he wanted to buy

G D Em

you had a purple sweater and your brown eyes

G D Em

we drove home while i was drunk in love

G D Em

where we kinda held loud in the car (not sure about this sentence)

G D Em

the afternoon that I came to you

G D Em

it was an afternoon of most complete bloom

G D Em

this dark blue jacket princess and i

G D Em

and we loved until the end of time

G D Em

C#m G#m

we were to shy about our love

Bm F#

did not have to go through

C#m G#m Bm F# G

all these things that would damage the hearts of our souls

Bm G

we didn't have to

Bm G C#m

Bm G

we didn't have to

Bm G C#m