

Singing To The Waking Sun
Jivadev

Jivadev s myspace: <http://www.myspace.com/jivadevsmusic>

This is my first submission, so there could be a lot of mistakes in it :p. If you guys any comments please leave them in a reply and i ll adjust the chords.

A E F#m x2
D E x2

A E F#m
we were singing to the waking sun

A E F#m
another summer day had begun

D E
we took a chair and sat and watched the sun awake

A E F#m
i read the book of the mighty one

A E F#m
found his words in all that could be seen

D E
there was magic floating around

A E F#m
all the world

A E F#m
we were children but we had grown up

A E F#m
we did not know what life was all about

D E
we only knew we were totally drunk in love

A E F#m

Ebm Bbm
we were to shy about our love

C#m G#
we did not have to go through

Ebm Bbm C#m G# A
all these things that would damage the hearts of our souls

C#m A
we didn t have to

A E F#m
our eyes watched each others love

A E F#m
we were wandering what we had to do

A E F##m

because, we couldn't even locked the door

A E F##m

so we tried to keep your brother outside

A E F##m

do you remember when my uncle stopped by

A E F##m

for that Volvo that he wanted to buy

A E F##m

you had a purple sweater and your brown eyes

A E F##m

we drove home while i was drunk in love

A E F##m

where we kinda held loud in the car (not sure about this sentence)

A E F##m

the afternoon that I came to you

A E F##m

it was an afternoon of most complete bloom

A E F##m

this dark blue jacket princess and i

A E F##m

and we loved until the end of time

A E F##m

Ebm Bbm

we were to shy about our love

C#m G#

did not have to go through

Ebm Bbm C#m G# A

all these things that would damage the hearts of our souls

C#m A

we didn't have to

C#m A Ebm

C#m A

we didn't have to

C#m A Ebm