Oo-wee how d I lose?

E G D A
Talking about a night in Santa Cruz

E G D A (E G D A)
Well, I came to the coast from L.A.

E G A (E G D A)
Just to give a little music to boo me away

E G D A (E G D A)
Hey J.J. can you play Cocaine?

E D A (E G D A)
Do After Midnight it s all the same

E G A
Oo-wee how d I lose?

E G D A
Talking about a night in Santa Cruz

E G A
Oo-wee how d I lose?

E G D A
I ll tell you about the night in Santa Cruz

E G A E G D A

E G D A
Well we didn t play long and you booed too soon

E G D A
I can t do right no matter what you do

E G D A

A girl in the crowd, at the finale

E G D A

Shouted at me had I even tried

E G D A

Another man left cos he didn't stay long

E G D A

I thought we had played his favorite song

E G D A

Hey you, pull that weight

E D A

As soon as it's cleaned up then I'll fade away

E G D A

My friends and I hope you're glad to see

E G A

Me and friends coming off the street

Play, Richard

Break

E G D A (E G D A)

I don't mean a man can't lose

E G D A (E G D A)

Just stay by the night in Santa Cruz

E G D A (E G D A)

Just stay by the night in Santa Cruz

E G D A (E G D A)

I don't mean a man can't lose . . .
