THE LONG WAY HOME - JJ Grey & Mofro

Tabbed by: sugapablo
Album: Lochloosa

Standard Tuning, but I play it using a capo on the second fret so the B, F#, and E are open chords.

B F# E B
Ain t much changed around here since the beginning of time
People born, people live, people kill, people dieing
In a vague memory of the time I was born
Flash of light thunder rolled now I m here now I m gone

B F# E B
But do you, do you, do you know where your goin

G#m B
No effort, no gain
G#m B
No effort, stay the same
C# B
No don t you ever try to live a lie

Bittersweet memories of the road to my regret
Tryin to change the whole world ain t nobody did it yet
Yeah this life can be cruel yeah this life ain t always fair
Yet we hope to ascend to the place we send our prayers

But do you, do you, do you know where your goin
