NOTES : This is a nice depressing song by an excellent band and i was desperatly looking for someone to tab this song out till i did it myself by messing around so i feel this is as close as i can get the d/f# is some places could be a D or vice versa but this is the way i like to play it but if u think different i am interested in your comment at the e-mail addy up above and why are u reading this??? ou should be playing it the second it comes up on the screen man!!! or girl might accused of discrimination against women guitarists if i didnt put in girl and noel gallagher was wrong to say women are only there to polish guitars some women look sexy holding the six string beast play away!!
