A

Hello Lucy Snow,

D

I just thought I'd let you know

Bm

E7

The walls around my heart have been broken apart

A

With the words that you just let flow

Hello Lucy Snow,

I wanted to let you know

The spark in your eyes has brightened my skies,

Thank you for letting it show

E D A (sounds best played up the neck)

Hello Lucy Snow (x3)

E

Baby, let's go

Every once in a while you'll find

Someone who will stretch your mind

Someone to connect with, converse and reflect with,

Someone who's one of your kind

Every once in a while you'll meet

Someone so thoroughly sweet

So Sultry and cool with a philosophy, too

That will knock you right off your feet

Chorus

Instr. (follow verse chords)

Chorus

If you're lucky enough to know,

a woman like Lucy Snow,

Hold on to her tight

With all of your might

You'll never want her to go

Chorus

E

Baby, let's go
C'mon Lucy Snow
I'm glad that I know

A

You....
