

Androgynous

Joan Jett and The Blackhearts

Try it in the key of D. Sounds closer

Intro:

D A Bm G

Verse:

D A

Here comes Dick, he s wearing a skirt

Bm G

Here comes Jane you know she s sportin a chain

D

Same hair, a revolution

A

Same build, evolution

Bm G

Tomorrow who s gonna fuss?

A G D

And they love each other so, androgynous

A G

Closer than you know, love each other so, androgynous

D A

Well don t get him wrong, and don t get him mad

Bm G

He might be a father but he sure ain t a dad

D A

And she don t need the advice that is sent to her

Bm G

She s happy with the way she looks, she s happy with her gender

A G D

And they love each other so, androgynous

A G

Closer than you know, love each other so, androgynous

Bridge:

G Bm

Mirror image, see no damage, see no evil at all

G Bm

Cupie dolls and urine stalls will be laughed at

A

The way you re laughed at now

D A

Something meets boy and something meets girl

Bm G

They both look the same, they re overjoyed in this world

D
Same hair, a revolution

A
Unisex, evolution

Bm G
Tomorrow who s gonna fuss?

D
And tomorrow Dick is wearing pants,

A
Tomorrow Jane is wearing a dress

Bm G
Future outcasts and they don t last

D A
And today people dress the way that they please

Bm G
They way they tried to do in the last centuries

A G D
And they love each other so, androgynous

A G
Closer than you know, love each other so, androgynous