D G A D
Oh where is your inflammatory writ

G A D
Your text that would inside a light be lit

Our music deserving devotion unswerving

Cried do I deserve her with unflagging fervour

G A D
Well no we do not if we cannot get over it

GMaj7 Bm
But whatâ€™s it mean when suddenly weâ€™re spent tell me true

GMaj7 Bm
Ambition came and reared itâ€™s head and went far from you

GMaj7
Even molluscs have weddings though solemn and leaden

Bm
But you dirge for the dead and take no jam on your bread

D G A D
Just a supper of salt and a waltz through your empty bed

F A
And all at once it came to me

Bb F
And I wrote in hunch til 4:30

Cm Gm A D
But that vestal light it burns out with the night

G7 Dm
In spite of all the time that we spent on it

Bb F
On one bedraggled ghost of a sonnet

G D
While outside the wild boars root

Bm A
Without bending a bough underfoot

C G
Oh it breaks my heart I donâ€™t know how they do it

So donâ€™t ask me

D G A D
And as for my inflammatory writ

G A D
I wrote it and I was not inflamed one bit
GMaj7

Advice from the master derailed that disaster

Bm

He said hand that pen over to me poetaster

GMaj7

While â€ˆcross the great plains keening lovely and awful

Bm

You ulate the lost great American novels

D

G

A

D

An unlawful lot left to stutter and freeze floodlit

C
