Tuning: Standard

I made a slight mistake in that it was not a
Am9 chord played after the C but a regular A minor

Intro: C, Amin, Bb, C, Amin, Bb, C

C Amin
You know I wish I was in Richmond
Bb C
You know I do , I wish I was back home
C Amin
You know I wish I was in Richmond
Bb C
The land I was raised , the place I ve always known

C Amin
And now I m waiting in New York City
Bb C
The rain is falling , no one seems to see
C Amin
And all the salesman , they take notice
Bb C
Forget the rushing lives , for the rushing brides to be

C Amin
You know I wish I was in Richmond
Bb C
You know I do , I wish I was back home

C Amin
She didn t change me , she forgave me
Bb C
So now it s time , time for me to leave
C Amin
Like broken glass in my broken hands
Bb C

I m broken down , this I do believe

C Amin
You know I wish I was in Richmond
Bb C
You know I do , I wish I was back home
C Amin
You know I wish I was in Richmond
Bb C
The land I was raised , the place I ve always known

C Amin
As a frost comes , I ve learned some
Bb C
Not to make the same mistakes again
C Amin
Laws are learned , as rule books burn
Bb C
But what I do know , leads to still my friend

C Amin
I m going back , back to Richmond
Bb C
You know I am , you know I m going home
C Amin
I m going back , back to Richmond
Bb C
The land I was raised , the place that I call home

Between certain verses Joe plays a small riff in which the easiest way to play, I found, is like this:

B	---6-6-6-6-6p5p3---3h5p3-----
G	-----5-----5-2--2-2-2/3--3-3-3/5~-----
D	-----
