Girl Riding Shotgun Joe Diffie

This sounds right to me. My first tab though. Any help would be appreciated. You can leave the Em out of the chorus if you want or add it to the verse. I just do what feels right.

This one is for Courtney :)

Whoa, she s a hot one...
It s a hot day, and I got a pocket fulla money Friday tires roaring you can hear me coming cooler in the back bud light ice cold me and my buddies cutting down an old back road
I got a jacked up truck but it aint much a fixer upper with a brand new clutch, yeah it takes me anywhere I wanna go even though it s hard to keep my eyes on the road.
Chorus:
With that girl, ridin in a shotgun \mathbf{E}\mathbf{m} sun kissed by that Dixie hot sun whoaaaa she s a hot one yeah, yeah..
                                               Εm
Aldean all up on the radio, dashboard lights shining on by baby oh
