Don t know where she goes, but I know that she s gone

G

Her skin is dark and softer than a baby s

When she sings to me her voice is sweet as candy

Her lips are rose red, as sweet as cheery wine

Her eyes are green and blue, they can t make up their mind

I ve been sinkin low, I can t find my baby

)

I ve been sinkin low, I can t find my baby

I ve been high and low, faces of these stone walls

Don t know where she goes, but I know that she s gone

G

Went down to the station, I thought that I would find you

D G

With your suit case on the ground, I knew I was right behind you, yeah

As the train doors closed I saw you through the window

D G

You watched me as I waved; the train took you away

G

I ve been sinkin low, I can t find my baby

I ve been sinkin low, I can t find my baby

C (

I ve been high and low, faces of these stone walls

Don t know where she goes, but I know that she s gone

I know that she s gone

I saw that building burned down, when I got to your front lawn I thought that you d be here, yeah, but you d already gone I went down to the river, you hid under the water And then you held your breath, yeah, and then you disappeared
