

Why Do I
Joe Purdy

C#m A
Late at night,
E B
Midnight movie.
C#m A
got no one to talk to,
E B
No one to see.
C#m A
and I am counting stars
 E B
as I lay awake dear
C#m A
I know you ain t far,
E B A B
But I know you ain t here with me.

CHORUS

E C#m A B
So why do I get so lonely when there really ain t nothing wrong.
E C#m
Cause I can sleep just fine when you hold me.
A B
Can t sleep at all when you re gone.
E C#m
Yeah and why do I stay out drinkin
A B
When I should just get back home.
E C#m
I guess the company of strangers.
A B
Is better than drinkin alone.

Too tired to sing.
Walking down the street.
And still cant sleep.
Just too many things,
I got running around my head.
Can t put my thoughts to rest.
Think i ll wait outside your door,
When you wake I will confess.

So why do I get so lonely when there really ain t nothing wrong.
Cause I can sleep just fine when you hold me.
Can t sleep at all when you re gone.
Yeah, why do I stay out drinkin

When I Should just get back home.
I guess the company of strangers.
Is better than drinkin alone.

So why do I get so lonely when there really ain t nothing wrong
cause I can sleep just fine when you hold me
cant sleep at all when you re gone
Yeah, why do I stay out drinkin
When I should just get back home
Guess the company of strangers.
Is better than drinkin alone.

So why do I get so lonely when there really ain t nothing wrong.
So why do I get so lonely when there really ain t nothing wrong.
So why do I get so lonely yeah there really ain t nothing wrong.
So why do I get so lonely when there really ain t nothing wrong.
