The Ramones Are Dead Joey Cape

Joey Cape – The Ramones are dead (Bridge, 2008)

(Note: For easier play, use capo in 1st fret!)

A# Gm I can listen to the records from my younger years D# D#7 F F Pacify my bitter ears and revive the dead dinosaurs. A# Gm Me and Jamo rode two buses round for Rockpile D# A#7 \mathbf{F} A# Sure to find a rarity and something to believe.

D# Gm D# But I can t listen to them now without mourning a small town A# A#7 F and the mom and pops I loved D# Cm Once were missionary men D# F We age into obscurity with them A# (F) The Ramones are dead

A#

You could judge a band by the cover flipping through the bins D# Assured enough to take a spin D#7 \mathbf{F} \mathbf{F} The art and lyrics big enough to see and read A# Pull the record from its sleeve Gm Spear the cut hole, arm and seed D# \mathbf{F} A# A#7 Plunge the needle, shaking like a drug fiend

Gm

D# Gm Now relevant again somehow Cm Reanimated sacred cow F A# A#7 But it all seems different now D# Cm It s far too easy to find anything in demand G# F I ll say it once again

A# The Ramones are dead.
