

Violet
Joey Cape

F G
Tonight the drunks are infected

Bb C F
We re on our way

G
As if they drop by to see me

Bb C F
Un-invited

Bb C F
And I am a wallflower

G
Maybe a better father

Bb C
This is a job

F G
For seconds I miss the Bentleys

Bb C F
Today, maybe they ll call

F G
You describe every prison

Bb C F
You pass through them all

Bb C F
Then he asked you for your head

A7 Dm
And I vowed to burn your bed

G Bb
Try to pretend but this is your life

C
Somehow it feels right

F

I m calling this evolution

C

I m falling for institution

Dm C Bb

Warm submission enveloping you

F

Tomorrow I ll survive the questions

C

Knives buried with cold indifference

Dm C Bb

My world is true. Rendered by you.

A7 Bb

Here they come again

Bb C F

I could never find the words

A7 Bb

So I disguised them in verse

C F

Until it comes out dumb and wrong

A7

The simplest song

Bb C

If you sing along

F Bb G C

Marry me Kristen, marry me Kristen; I want to be the only one

F

I m painting a revolution

C

I m falling for institution

Dm C Bb

Warm colours enveloping blue

F

Shot of comfort in a warm convention

C

Medicinal injection

Dm C Bb
Thirty-six years ended by you

F G
Tonight the drunks are infected

Bb C F
We re on our way
