

Blue Train

John D. Loudermilk

Blue Train: John D. Loudermilk.

#44 in 1964.

INTRO: HARMONICA.

#1.

D

Blue light flashing down the railroad track.

G

Blue smoke boiling from the old smoke stack.

D

A

Oh, Blue Train, don't leave me behind.

D

Blue steam flying from the blue choo-choo..

G

wheels a whining a lonesome blues.

D

A

D

Oh, Blue Train, on the Heartbreak, Railroad Line.

D

Doo doot n doo doo doo.

#2.

D

G

My baby said, she loved me true, then she ran off with someone new.

D

A

Oh, Blue Train, don't leave me behind.

D

G

Yeah, let me ride, till I lose, these doggone awful blues.

D

A

D

Oh, Blue Train, of the Heartbreak, Railroad Line.

D

Doo doot n doo doo doo.

#3.

D

G

D

Blue Train, you're coming in on time.

G

D

Blue train, you're coming in on time.

A

D

Cause I just lost, that lovey of mine.

G

A

D

Blue Train, of the Heartbreak, Railroad Line.

D

Doo doot n doo doo doo.

OUTRO:HARMONICA.

D

Doo doot n doo doo doo.

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.