Midnight Bus John D. Loudermilk Midnight Bus: John D. Loudermilk. recorded in 1960. INTRO: A #1. Me and my baby, we left on the midnight bus. Pulled out of Durham and left in a cloud of dust. Headed for the border of North and South Caroline. This time tomorrow she ll be mine. #2. Α D After we had ridden for a while on the midnight bus. We fell out and had an awful fuss. Said goodbye, and I pulled the buzzer chord. I got off and the driver slammed the door. #3. Left and lost my baby on the midnight bus. Left and lost my baby on the midnight bus. She s gone, my baby s gone and I m alone. #4. D Standin in the highway, holdin my suitcase tight.

D

Watching that midnight bus pull out of sight.

She s gone, my baby s gone and I m alone.

OUTRO: A

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.