

A Country Girl In Paris

John Denver

C

A country girl in Paris, moonlight on the Seine

C7

Memories of Tennessee, Nashville in the rain

F C

It s such a contradiction, a heart that s filled with pain

G G7 C

A country girl in Paris dreamin Nashville in the rain

C

She walks along the boulevard Champs Elysee

C7

Thinks about a country boy three thousand miles away

Pride is such a hard thing, It s such a price to pay

G G7 C

To be all alone in Paris with true love so far away

Am F C

Up upon Montmartre when she stops to rest a while Em F G

All the artists look at her and they long to paint her

Am F C

For even in her sorrow there s something in her eyes

Em F G

That makes the young men jealous, makes the old men sigh

(C C7)

(F C)

G G7 C

A country girl in Paris

Am F C

They say the loss of innocence is always linked to pain

Em F G

For once the heart is opened nothing ever is the same

Am F C

And so the evening lends itself to lovers and ro mance

Em F

The way to heal a broken heart is to give true love

G G7

Just one more chance

C

A country girl in Paris, moonlight on the Seine

C7

Memories of Tennessee, Nashville in the rain

F C

It s such a contradiction, a heart that s filled with pain

G G7 C

A country girl in Paris dreamin Nashville in the rain

G G7 C

A country girl in Paris, longing for Nashville in the rain