To build our own family To take on the world Youâ€™d make me so happy If you would be my girl

Thereâ€™s a path in Cinque Terra
Lovers carve their hearts in stone
Where I gazed out over heaven
And thought of you alone

When the sun fell through the water
I stood and wrung my hands
Crying â€œLord show me compassion
And let me be the manâ€•

Iâ€™m crazy about you, baby

I keep dreaming of our future
I keep whispering your name
I know my precious treasures
You hold all of them

Iâ€™ve been counting every heartbeat
Iâ€™ve been burning in my skin
Every second is a lifetime
So, baby take my hand

Heres my first go at it real quick. Unreal song. Hope you like it.
