

Its Hard To Write a Love Song
John Entwistle

[Intro] F G A F G A

D G
I lie awake at night and try
F G
Not to think about her
F G
Try to live without her
F G D
It s hard, so hard

D G
When you wake up and turn around
F G
You realize she s not there
F G
You tell yourself you don t care
F G D
But you do, she s part of you

D# F G
Love is a pain that never ends
D# F G
She becomes part of you
D# F G
My whole body s aching, my heart is breaking
D# F
Since you left me, I ve missed you
D
And all that rubbish

D G
It s hard to find new ways to say
F G
How much I love you
F G
What I think of you
F G D
I love you, I need you, I want you, etcetera, etcetera
D G
It s hard to write a love song
F G
That has something new to say
F G
Without using old cliches
F G D
I love you, I want you, I miss you, etcetera, etcetera

D# F G
Love is a pain that never ends
D# F G
She becomes part of you
D# F G
My whole body s aching, my heart is breaking
D# F
Since you left me, I ve missed you
D
And all that rubbish

[Solo] D F G
F G F G
F G D

D G
It s hard to write a love song
F G
That has something new to say
F G
Without using old cliches
F G D
I love you, I want you, I need you, etcetera, etcetera

D# F G
Love is a pain that never ends
D# F G
She becomes part of you
D# F G
My whole body s aching, my heart is breaking
D# F

D# F G
Love is a pain that never ends
D# F G
I ve become part of you
D# F G
Love is lust and love is trust
D# F G
And love, for me, is you
