

Hundred And Ten In The Shade
John Fogerty

[Intro] D Am D C D

D D
Way out there in the cotton
Am D
Sun beatin down so hard
D
Sweat rollin of this shovel
Am D
Diggin in the devil s boneyard

G
Sure like a cool drink of water
Bb
Soft rag to soothe my face
D Am D
Sure like a woman to talk to in this place

D
It s a hundred and ten
G D
Hundred and ten in the shade
D
Goin way down
Am D
Mama won t you carry me

D D
Handle so hot I can t stand it
Am D
Might shrivel up and blow away
D
Noonday sun make you crazy
Am D
Least, that s what the old men say

G
Bottom land hard as a gravestone
Bb
Couldn t cut it with an axe
D Am
Gonna lay me down right here
D
And that s a fact

D
It s a hundred and ten

G D
Hundred and ten in the shade

D
Goin way down

Am D
Mama won t you carry me

[Solo] D Am D

D D
Sometimes late in the evenin

Am D
Everything is quiet and still

D D
I set here and think about leavin

Am D
Lord, I guess I never will

G
Heartache down in that city

Bb
Bright light scares me anyway

D Am D
Sure like a woman to talk in this place

D
It s a hundred and ten

G D
Hundred and ten in the shade

D
Goin way down

Am D
Mama won t you carry me
