Shaking the daze from my head again

I reassemble on the morning train

A#

I try to say

C

My voice just tumbles on a long delay

Db

And there s a new man at the edge of me

Eb

It s crazy

Db

Making new plans for the rest of me

Eb

I m looking back from miles away

Miles away

Miles away

Miles away

All the same

We talk on telephones across the haze

Miles away

The planes go glinting on their vapour trails

And I m a new man when I walk away

It s crazy

Turning my head to the shine again

I m waking up from miles away

Miles away

Miles away

Miles away

Have fun!
