

In Your Eyes
John Frusciante

Am Em F C

I was holding on to what just goes and goes

G F

absence won t change

Am Em F C

Memories can be the chains that won t let go

G F

of endless motion.

Every sign is a window

F C

you look through

G F

or see yourself in

Am Em F Am

who becomes the reflection but we who lose

G F

ourselves in abstraction

Em F

And won't turn round

Em F G

from facing in while our eyes look out
