[Intro]
C#m   E x2

[Verse]
C#m                                    E
   I need a taste, I can almost face myself
C#m                                      E
   There is a way, a never-ending pavement cast
C#m                                    E
Land on a date such a long, long way, way back
C#m                                       E
   Which has a crave for the path that ends in black

[Prechorus]
F#m                      A      C#7    Aaug   Ddim
   I gotta fade another day
F#m                      A         C#7b9     C#7 Ddim  (C#)
  I can taste it, I can feel it       Aaaaaaaaah

[Chorus]
Bbm          C#          G#      F#         Bbm        C# G# F#
  And you can have, you can have my face right now        Yeaaeeaahh
oooh
Bbm         C#          G# F#
  Standing back from the lapse
C#m              E           Eb  Gaug
  Children are what you are

C#m   E x2

[Verse 2]
C#m                                                E
Tim Gilbert weighs internally more than the scales say
 C#m                                         E
Carries a weight such that no eyes see in air
C#m                                       E
Jean Nealy views from a place where time is flat
C#m                                         E
  She sees a haze that could penetrate more black

[Prechorus]
F#m                         A    C#7   Aaug  Ddim
   She s gotta seize who sees
F#m                         A
   And she wants to live in lightning
C#7b9                         C#7
God,  (God shrinking multiplicity you are)
         (Ddim)
You,  are

[Chorus]
Bbm          C#          G#      F#          Bbm   C#  G#  F#
   And you can have, you can have my fate right now
Bbm       C#          G# F#
  Another grave, another blank
 C#m            E         Eb  Gaug
Children are what you are
Bm      D              A        G
  Landscapes come and pass my way
Dm           F       G#aug
 Vision goes in a car
Cm          D#          A# G#
  What you say, another day
 D#m               F#        Aaug/C#   Aaug
Above you, you mostly are
Bbm          C#          G#         F#
   And in the cradle, a newborn babe
C#m         E         Gaug/B  Gaug*
  Is a dot in the war
Cm             D#          A# G#
  Spreads its wings, intervenes
 D#m        F#       Aaug/C#  (Aaug)
  Human atop a star

[Rap Part]
Bbm  G#  Ebm  F#  (G#)
