I wont see sleep tonight, like careless people do.
D   G
I will not dream tonight, for fear that something might come true.
E
And I think the thing that's hurting is I should so know better
G   D   G
But its much less work to take the pain than it is to forget her.
D   G
I will not reminisce all the perfect days that were,
D   G
And I wont say it was bliss the thing I felt I was so sure.
Em
And I think the thing that's bleeding is the slash you never disinfected,
G   D
So now I'll never have a love and I feel like that means I'm protected.

Chorus:
D   G
You must think I'm still sixteen, I dropped out of high school for a reason,
D   Em
And I don't care if you're pretty I'm not admitting you are right
Em   G   D
My soul is not a stage I wont pretend I'm anything I'm not.

D   (G)   G
I know your secrets but I don't know where you are tonight.
D   G   Gm
So, this is tag you're it, I stopped playing games when I was five-foot-five.

The nightmare of a night sky, who you're with and where you have been.

You must think I'm still sixteen I dropped out of high school for a reason
