

Master Of Disaster
John Hiatt

Master of Disaster " John Hiatt

Can't seem to find the proper guitar tab for this song, so I worked it out myself.

The song is actually played with a Capo on the second fret. Play the F Chord like a C Chord, letting the top E string ring open, but bar the bottom E string with your thumb.

Capo 2nd Fret

VERSE 1

Fmaj7	C	G	Am
Close one there		Choking in clean underwear
Fmaj7	C	G	Am
Bleeding tongue		Eight ball pounding in my lungs
Fmaj7	C	G	Am
Ship to shore		I can't see the coastline anymore
Fmaj7	C	G	Am
I shouldn't be here		I thought I made that loud and clear

CHORUS

Fmaj7	C	G	Am
But the master of disaster		Gets tangled in his telecaster
Fmaj7	C	G	Am
He can't play it any faster		When he plays the blues
Fmaj7	C	G	Am
When he had the heart to ask her		And every note just shook the plaster
Fmaj7	C	G	Am
Now he's just a mean old bastard		When he plays the blues

China town
Chasing that old dragon down
Madam Wong's
We play the blues with the curtains drawn
Sidewalks of white
While the LA sun beat out the night
Pounding brain
My last transmission down the drain

[CHORUS]

VERSE 2

There's a debt I owe
I'll never pay before I go

So I sing the blues
Hand me down my walking shoes
You re in my heart
Though we may be miles apart
There s my point
I ll see you in another joint

[CHORUS]
