

Perfectly Good Guitar

John Hiatt

#-----PLEASE NOTE-----#
#This file is the author s own work and represents their interpretation of the # #song. You may only use this file for private study, scholarship, or research. #
#-----#
#

Tabbed by: Sam Tennent

Perfectly Good Guitar _ John Hiatt

INTRO

Am Em G D C Em

Am Em D G D C D

Em D Em

Em G

Well he threw one down form the top of the stairs

Am C D

beautiful women were staning everywhere

Em G

they all got wet when he smahed that thing

Am D G

but off in the dark you could hear somebody sing

Am Em

oh it breaks my heart to see those stars

G C D G

smashing a perfectly good guitar

Am Em

i don;t know who they think they are

D G C D

smashing a perfectly good guitar

Em D Em

Em D Em

it started back in 1963 his momma wounlt buy him that new red harmony

he settled fgor a sunburt with a crack but he s still trying to break his momma s back.

chorus

Solo Guitar - Same Chords as intro.

he loved that guitar just like a girlfriend but ever good thing comes to an end now he just sits in his room all day whistling every note he used to play there out to be a law with no bail smash a guitar and you go to jail with no chance for early parole you don;t get out till you get some soul

chorus

late at night the end of the road he wished he still had the old guitar to hold he d rock it like a baby in his arms never let it come ot any harm

chorus