

Window On The World
John Hiatt

I didn't bother to tab the intro because that is played on the electric guitar.
Leave
intro to your electric guitar-playing friend and play this on your acoustic:

John Hiatt - Window on the world

Capo 2nd fret

D G D
A broken promise i kept too long
D A
A greasy shade and a curtain drawn
D G D
A broken glass and a heart gone wrong
D A D
That's my window on the world

D G D
A cup of coffee in a shaky hand
D A
Wakin' up in a foreign land
D G D
Tryin' to act like i got somethin' planned
D A D
That's my window on the world

Chorus 1:

D G D
That's my window on the world
D G D
Could you stand a little closer, girl
D G A
Don't let mama cut those curfs
A D
That's my window on the world

(time to call your buddy with the el. guitar)

In broad daylight that circus tent
Pulled up stakes, I don't know where it went
A close dark room with a busted vent
That's my window on the world

I think about you when i m countin sheep
I think about you, then i can t sleep
I think that ocean is just so deep
That s my window on the world

Chorus 2:

That s my window on the world
Could you stand a little closer, girl
The queen of Sheba meets the duke of earle
That s my window on the world

(is your buddy there yet?)

Down on indiana avenue
Wes and jimmy, man they played the blues
I guess they were only passin through
That s my window on the world

Chorus 1

That s my window on the world
Could you stand a little closer, girl
Don t let mama cut those curfs
That s my window on the world

Chorus 2:

That s my window on the world
Could you stand a little closer, girl
The queen of Sheba meets the duke of earle
That s my window on the world
