

Surprise, Surprise
John Lennon

E7

Sweet as the smell of success

A                    A/F#                    F#m

Her body s warm and wet

E7

She gets me thru this God awful loneliness

A                    A/F#                    F#m

A natural high butterfly

D6            A            Bm

Oh I, I need, need, need her

Just like a willow tree

A breath of spring you see

And oh boy, you don t know what she do to me

She makes me sweat and forget who I am

D6            A            Bm            A            G7

I need, need, need, need her

D                                    G F#7                                    Bm                                    E7

Well I was wond ring how long this could go on, on and on

A                                    F#m                                    E7sus4            E7

Well I thought I could never be surprised

D                                    G F#7                                    Bm                                    E7

But could it be that I    bit my own tongue

A                                    F#m                                    E7sus4            E7

Oh yeah, It s so hard to swallow when you re wrong

A bird of paradise

Sunrise in her eyes

God only knows such a sweet surprise

I was blind she blew my mind

D6            A            Bm            A            G7

Think that I, I love, love, love, love, love her

I love her

I love her

I love her

I love her

I love her

Sweet sweet, sweet sweet love!

Sweet sweet, sweet sweet love!

Sweet sweet, sweet sweet love!

Sweet sweet, sweet sweet love!
