Cuz I can t breathe without You anymore

Without You I m left with just rocks in my chest

Aches and pains that will not recess

And the worst is - without You, I ve got nothing left to say

Cuz you sweeten my days with that light amber haze

And I never could get away when I need You, yeah, and I always need You

On my own, I m more than just alone. I m colder than religion, I m colder than stone

Without You, I m another waste of time

Like words that only rhyme but aren t making any sense

CHORUS

Without You, I m just water and dustâ€¦ (lead break over verse progression)
