John Mayer - How Much It Hurts

Mayer plays a much more intricate song than what I have laid out here, but if you want the basic chord structure to strum and sing along with, this works well for me:

D A
Speak, speak your mind
Bm A
You're always telling me I need to open mine
D A
And wait, wait your turn
Bm A
Then shut me out 'cause you've got nothing left to learn

Em7 A Em
Oh, you say there's nothing wrong with being proud
Em7 A Em
So tell me what you love and say it loud
Em7 A Em
Now here's the dose that you've been dishing out
D A
If you're listening this is how much it hurts
Bm A
If you're listening this is how much it hurts

D
Oh, I'm wrong
A
I'm wrong again
Bm A
But not because of where I stand but where I've been
D
And it burns

A
Oh, you know it burns like hell
Bm A
To know there's nothing I can do but wish you well

Em7 A Em
You say there's nothing wrong with being proud
Em7 A Em
So tell me what you love and say it loud
