Verse 1
```
          G   D              G   D
```
The summer s over, this town is closing.
            G   D              A   D
They re waving people out of the ocean.
          G   D              G   D
We had the feeling like we were floating.
        G   D              A   D
We never noticed where time was going.

        G   D              G   D
Do you remember when we first got here?
            G   D                    A   D
The days were longer; the nights were hot here.
          G   D              G   D
```
Now, it s September; the engine s starting.
            G   D          A   D
You re empty-handed and heavy-hearted.

Chorus
                              G                  Bm
But just remember on the way home, (Oooh ooh ooh)
                              G
That you were never meant to feel alone.
G               D      G        D
It takes a little while, but you ll be fine,
G          D       A       D (hold)
Another good time coming down the line.

Intro riff (2x)

Verse 2
A         D     A          D
You ll go back to love that s waiting,
A       D       A

I ll unpack in a rented room.
A         D        A           D
How s that life you swear you re hating?
A        D        A          D
Grass is greener, that makes two.

Chorus
                            G                   Bm
But just remember on the way home, (Oooh ooh ooh)
                                   G
That you were never meant to feel alone.
     G        D      G          D
Just look me up; get back on the bus.
     G          D         A       D
I ll see you next week if you need my trust.

Verse 3
(D chords throughout this verse, you can switch among D, Dsus4, D5, to keep it from getting stale)

Life ain t short, but it sure is small.
You get forever but nobody at all.
Life ain t short, but it sure is small.
You get forever but nobody at all.
                                         A
It don t come often, and it don t stay long.
(Oooh, oooh, oooh, oooh)

Chorus
                            G                   Bm
But just remember on the way home, (Oooh ooh ooh)
                                   G
That you don t ever have to feel alone.
G               D    G          D
Just stay on the run; get off the grid.
G            D          A         D
Hide yourself out like you know that I did,
G                 D            G        D
And if you might find that you re running is done,
G              D         A        D
A little bit of Heaven never hurt no one.
