Intro

(1) Midnight
lock all the doors and turn out the lights Feels like the end of the world this Sunday night

(2) There s not a sound
Outside the snow s coming down
(3) and somehow I can t seem to find the quiet inside my mind

(1) 3:02
the space in this room has turned on me and all my fears have cornered me here me and my TV screen

(2) The volume s down Blue lights are dancing around (3) and still, I can t seem to find
the quiet inside my mind

(4) Daylight is climbing the walls cars start and feet walk the halls
The world awakes and now I am safe at least by the light of day
