Deep Blue Heart
John Mellencamp

C Am
Daylight is leaving and the night is closing in
C Am
In just a few hours the sleeplessness begins again
F C F C
My head feel thick and I am unable to think
C F C
I guess Iâ€™ll wait â€™til tomorrow and see what it brings

D F C
I have a little hope left and I guess thatâ€™s someplace to start
C F C
But my memory is full of a Deep Blue Heart

C Am
My fun loving sense of humor is nowhere to be found
C Am
I stare into my own eyes with tears flowing down
F C F C
Iâ€™d sing out a song but Iâ€™ve forgotten the tune
C F C
And the words now escape me but I think it was about you

D F C
My vision now is way out in the dark
C F C
With just a little sight left of a Deep Blue Heart

C Am
I see us both flying in the clear blue sky
C Am
Floating out on the ocean with the sun in our eyes
F C F C
Caught in the moment, just me and you
C F C
In complete honesty, where everything is true

D F C
Thatâ€™s what I wanted to believe, right from the start
C F C
Just a little place for myself in your Deep Blue Heart
C F C
Carve out a place for myself in your Deep Blue Heart
