

Weakest Moments

John Mellencamp

Intro: A D A D(x2)

A D
Well I hear downstairs you re foolin around

A D
With your fathers brother and your mothers gown

A D
And all the old heroes keep comin around

G D
To find out if you re still alone

A D
So you lie in the sun, watch your body turn tan

A D
Your skin is oiled with the sweat of a man

A D
He bought you a diamond ring girl to wear on your hand

G D
And baby he s leavin tomorrow

Chorus:

D E
Yeah well I ll be here with you

F#m A
In your weakest moments, uh-huh

D E
Yeah I ll be there with you

A
In your weakest moments

A D G D

A D
Well you say you can t remember when it was your world

A D
And you were Mister Ruby s girl

A D
He gave you dreams and schemes that swirled

G D
Around your head and body

A D
And when you drink sometimes you try to liberate

A D
And you stagger in the front yard girl til you find the gate

A D
That swings on the thin line of love and hate

G D
Baby just let it go

Chorus:

D E
Yeah well I ll be here with you

F#m A
In your weakest moments, uh-huh

D E
Yeah I ll be there with you
