

G Am D7
 Me and Loretta we don t talk much more,
G Am D7
 She sits and stares through the back door screen.
Bm C
 And all the news just repeats itself
G D
 Like some forgotten dream that we ve both seen.

G Am D7
 Someday I ll go and call up Rudy,
G Am D7
 We worked together at the factory.
Bm C
 But what could I say if asks What s new
G D
 Nothing, what s with you? Nothing much to do.

[Chorus]

F G
 Ya know that old trees just grow stronger,
F G
 And old rivers grow wilder every day.
Bm C
 Old people just grow lonesome
G D G
 Waiting for someone to say Hello in there, hello.

[Verse]

G Am D7
 So if you re walking down the street sometime
G Am D7
 And spot some hollow ancient eyes,
Bm C
 Please don t just pass them by and stare
G D G
 As if you didn t care, say Hello in there, hello
