

Who Will Light A Candle

John Wetton

I've always loved this song, and much to my surprise I managed to transcribe it in just a few minutes. Some subtleties are certainly missing but it should give you a good basis to make your own arrangement.

<http://www.johnwetton.co.uk/>

Am G F E
Stone walls guarding these generations
Bound in circumstance, blood relations

Am Dm
Who will light a candle?

G C
Memories are fading

A Dm
Messengers are waiting

C E Am
At my door

Curtains hiding love's sweet confusions
All God's property, fears of intrusion

Who will light a candle?
Maybe I was sleeping
Messengers are waiting
At my door

G C G
For me now
G C Am C G
There's no love left inside of me
C G C
All creation washed out to sea
C G
All my nightmares come to me
Dm C Fmaj7 C
Over and over and over again

Pride and passion both shall inflame me
Till oblivion comes hence to claim me

Who will light a candle?
Who can tell the story?
Messengers are waiting
At my door