Abner Brown Johnny Cash

Every town has its town bum I guess ours had one Here s a song about him, I remember him fondly Well his name was Abner Brown

Α

I knew an old drunk named Abner Brown

.9

Nobody knew when he came to town

But he spread good will to his fellow men

And they let him sleep in the cotton gin

Α

He could drink more brew than an army could

.9

But he had more friends and he did more good

Than a lot of fine fancy people in our town

E A

So they tolerated Abner Brown

Α

And all us kids were on his side

Cause he told us tales till our eyes grew wide

)

And he made us feel bout ten feet tall

Cause he had no kids but he claimed us all

Α

And after school and on weekends

A9

You could find me down at the cotton gin

D 2

Truest friend that I ever found

E

Was A good old drunk named Abner Brown

1

Abner Brown, I wish that I could see you once again

I believe that you d stack up with all the mighty men

Defreve ende jou a beaen up wron arr one migne, me

I ve met and known in all the low And higher places that I ve been

A F#m D E

A
Thinking of you picks me up when I m :	feeling down I	thank the L	ord for	making
Abner Brown
A	A9		E
Lord take me back to the cotton land	To Arkansas tak	e me home a	gain
D 2	A
Let me be the boy that I once have be	en
E A
Let me walk that road to the cotton g	in
A	A9		E
He s probably dead many years ago And	gone the way t	hat old dru	nks go
D A	E		A
But I d still like to sit me down Tall	k to my old fri	end, Abner	Brown
D A
Abner Brown, I wish that I could see	you once again
D A	E
I believe that you d stack up with all	l the mighty me	en
A	D
I ve met and known in all the low And	higher places	that I ve b	een
A	F#m	D		E

Thinking of you picks me up when I m feeling down I thank the Lord for making

Α

Abner Brown

E

I thank the Lord for making Abner Brown