

Blue Train
Johnny Cash

Verse 1:

F
There s an engine at the station and the whistle calls my name,
C A# F
It s callin callin callin , Come and get aboard the train.
My baby s gone and I m alone to live in misery,
C A# F
I m gonna call and make a reservation for me.

Chorus 1:

F C
Gonna ride a blue train, gonna ride a blue train.
F C
Gonna ride a blue train, gonna ride a blue train.

Verse 2:

F
I m gonna climb aboard and ride until I learn to smile,
C A# F
I ll be knockin out the blues while I m knockin out the miles.
With my guitar, beat and rythm, to the click-clack of the wheels
C A# F
I m gonna sing the blues cause that s the way that I feel.

Chorus 2:

F C
Gonna ride a blue train, gonna ride a blue train.
F C
Gonna ride a blue train, gonna ride a blue train.

Solo 2:

Verse 3:

F
Conductor, go and tell the man to shovel on the coal
C A# F
It doesn t seem half as bad as long as I can roll.
Give me another ticket and I ll stay and ride with you.

C A# F

There s nothing left to live for in this world we re rollin through.

Chorus 3:

F C
Gonna ride a blue train, gonna ride a blue train.

F                                  C

Gonna ride a blue train, gonna ride a blue train.
