

Lonesome To The Bone
Johnny Cash

[Intro]

G

[Verse 1]

G

On the park bench I slept on,

G

Am

D

raindrops are falling on, newspapers covering me.

C

G

I hear early morning motors.

Cmaj7

Dsus2

And I know the world is waking for the dawn.

C

Am

My mind s down a dark alley,

G

Em

Em7 G6 Em

somewhere where last night you loved me.

C

G

C

Em

In the early morning chill, my arms remember still.

C

G

D

Em G6

But I m dropping like a stone lonesome to the bone.

[Chorus]

C

Am

G

Em

The sun is roughly rising on the roofs of Stagger town.

C

Am

D

G

Time for sweating poison out, just now coming round.

C

Am

D

Dsus4

Cmaj7

The high time of last midnight, over with and gone.

D

Em G6

Leaving me, lonesome to the bone.

[Verse 2]

G

I walked away the wind blows.

G

Am

D

And any way the wind goes, be good enough for me.

C

G

The streets are loud and crowded.

Cmaj7

Dsus2

But I walk my weary way lost and alone.

C

Am

Your hot breath and your laughter.

G

Em

Em7 G6 Em

Keep flashing through my mind to warm me.
