C

G

I ve been in jail eleven years and parole has just come through, the gates will soon swing open wide but I m not going through.

D

C

G

Jail s the only home I know or care to know about, please let me stay where I belong, please don t let me out.!

D

G

G7

C

G

How could I tell those friends of mine they ve seen the last of me,

D

can t I make you understand I never can be free ?

C

G

Cause that s a big unfriendly world and I don t know the route

D

G

that leads to where I may belong, please don t let me out!

( C G G D G )

G

C

G

I had to learn to get along without a lot of things, and I had to learn to live with the loneliness confinement brings.

D

C

G

And I learnt to take no mail from home or whatever came about,

D

G

G7

now I m dug in and I m happy here, please don t let me out!

C

G

How could I tell those friends of mine they ve seen the last of me,

D

can t I make you understand I never can be free ?

C

G

Cause that s a big unfriendly world and I don t know the route

D

G

G7

that leads to where I may belong, please don t let me out!

C

G

Yes, that s a big unfriendly world and I don t know the route
